From the Rectory Committee

It looks like all of our talk to Town of Trumbull officials may be paying off. P & Z has scheduled a meeting.

On Monday, July 6, 2009 at 7:30 p.m. in the Helen Plumb Building, 571 Church Hill Rd. Trumbull, there will be a public hearing on the following application.

Zoning Amendment

09-12- Amending the Zoning Regulations of the Town of Trumbull to add Art. II Sec. 6 to allow consideration for the adaptive reuse of structures either previously occupied by non-conforming uses or are of Historic value to the Town of Trumbull.

Watch and Learn

Take three minutes of your time and look at this YouTube excellent and informative presentation that deals with the question: "Are you saved?"

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sA1Cze3ZFjA>

Many times Orthodox faithful are confronted with the "Are you saved?" question. As Orthodox Christians we know the answer is more complex than a simple 'yes' or 'no' response. This video is a valuable instruction for Orthodox and an aid for all when responding to the query.

Molly Sabourin--who writes for The Handmaiden--wrote and reads the text.

Our "kids" shine!

Best wishes to Sarah Csernica who is spending the week volunteering with the Appalachian Service Project in Washington County, Tennessee. The Appalachian Service Project addresses housing repair needs for low income families in rural areas of Central Appalachia.

Tyler Tallcouch was named 1st Team All Naugatuck Valley Swim Team in the 100 Butterfly and 200 IM as a Junior and finished 8th in State in both events.

Cameron Tallcouch received the U.S. President's Award as one of the top achieving 5th Graders throughout her elementary education in the Town of Seymour CT.
