What is a Typika Service?

When a priest can not be present to conduct The Divine Liturgy, the Church allows individuals and groups of Orthodox to conduct a reader's service called The Typika.

While a Typika Service is not meant to replace The Divine Liturgy, it is very similar. It is led by a deacon, subdeacon, reader, chanter, or any experienced lay person, in that order. Unless a deacon is present and has obtained a presanctified host, Holy Communion is not offered.

We will conduct two of these services in our Church in the month of July. Please refer to the schedule of services.

Tables and Chairs

It is time to replace the chairs and tables in the church hall. We are asking parishioners to help by making donations to this cause. Please see a council member if you would like to contribute.

Engaged

Peter and Cheryl Themel announce the engagement of their daughter, Allyson, to David Hirst. We wish them all the very best.

Labor of LOVE

For the month of July we will be collecting for the Sisters of Mercy.
